GENERAL SECRETARIAT.

No. G. 7885—Sany. 1-28-6, dated 29th December 1928.

In exercise of powers vested in them under the Epidemic Diseases Regulation, II of 1897, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore hereby prohibit the attendance of persons from infected areas on the occasion of the Ghati Jatra in the Dodballapur Taluk, from the 10th to the 23rd January 1929.

No. G. 7921—Mly. 283-28-2, dated 2nd January 1929.

The following Press Communique issued by the Government of India empowering the Governor-General of India to recommend European British Subjects for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, is published for general information :—

The Army Council have empowered the Governor-General of India to recommend a limited number of European British Subjects, who are the sons of parents resident in India, for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst.

2. To be eligible for such nomination, a candidate will be required to qualify at the Army Entrance Examination held in India, the syllabus of which will be identical with that of the corresponding examination held in England. A candidate who wishes to appear at this examination must fulfil the following conditions :—

(a) Be a British Subject and the son of British Subjects, and be of pure European descent.
(b) Be unmarried.
(c) Be medically fit.
(d) Be in possession of a school certificate, or have matriculated.
(e) Have attained the age of 17½ years, and not have attained the age of 19 years :—
On 1st July of the same year for a summer examination ;
On 1st January of the following year for a winter examination.

3. The number of candidates that may be nominated by the Governor-General of India for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, is limited to a maximum of four annually. Any nominations made will be additional to the vacancies allotted to Indians and Anglo-Indians annually at the College.

4. Candidates nominated by the Governor-General of India and selected for admission to Sandhurst will not be eligible for Prize Cadetships, or for a free passage to the United Kingdom.

5. The appointment of cadets, after passing out of the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, to particular regiments of Cavalry and Infantry, to the Royal Tank Corps and to the Royal Army Service Corps, will be governed by the existence of vacancy and the requirements of the service.

6. Except in regard to the special conditions referred to in paragraph 2 (d) and (e) and in paragraph 4 above, the admission to Sandhurst of European British Subjects who are the sons of parents resident in India, will be governed generally by the Regulation, published by the Army Council.

7. Copies of the form of application may be obtained by prospective candidates direct from the Secretary to the Government of India, Army Department. The Army Entrance Examination will be held twice annually in India and will ordinarily begin in Delhi on the fourth Tuesday in June and the third Tuesday in November. Applications for admission to the June examination must reach the Secretary to the Government of India, Army Department, by the 1st April and for admission to the November examination by the 1st September.

By Order
R. RANGA RAO,
General Secretary to Government.
